

Johnson Asks for Labors Help for Program

By WALTER R. MEARS

Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson invited Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia to the White House for lunch today in another maneuver aimed at attempting to prod an $11-billion tax-cut bill through Congress.

Congressional sources reported that the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee accepted the invitation for a luncheon conference.

The tax bill has passed the House, but Byrd's committee has shown no disposition to shove it along quickly, even though Johnson has given it top priority, just as President John F. Kennedy did.

Johnson has been using every opportunity to build up support for the bill—he called on labor and business leaders Wednesday to get behind it, as well as civil rights legislation.

Johnson told them it was languishing in the Finance Committee.

The President developed a reputation for getting results with a sort of personal, political diplomacy when he was Democratic leader of the Senate. The meeting with Byrd was along similar lines.

Johnson is appealing for help on the legislative program wherever he can find it.

"I am the President, but I can do nothing without the people," Johnson told the AFL-CIO Executive Committee Wednesday. "You represent the people. I need you and I want you by my side."

Less than an hour later he went before the Business Advisory Council with this pledge:

"This administration wants to help you. We are not pro-labor, or pro-business or pro-any special sector. We are pro what is best for America."

"I am the only President you have," Johnson told some 60 business leaders, Cabinet members and economic advisers. "If you would have me fail, then you fail, for the country fails."

Johnson's speeches to union and industry leaders climaxed a busy White House day during which he also:

—Ordered tariff boosts of $23.9 million a year on five commodities in retaliation for increased import levies on U.S. poultry shipped to member nations of the European Economic Community.

—Announced he will confer Jan. 22 with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada.

—Slipped out of the White House to spend a half hour at a Capitol luncheon of the Texas congressional delegation.

Coatless despite the December chill, Johnson went to the White House rose garden to tell some 40 union leaders and government officials:

"The No. 1 priority today and tomorrow is more jobs and the goal of this administration is 75 million jobs in America." That would be an increase of 5 million jobs. Johnson set no target date for that goal.

GONE TO THE DOGS — It looks like Santa Claus has gone to the dogs. At least that is the way it appeared at a shopping center in St. Louis, Mo., when Santa showed up on a wheeled "dog sled" pulled by five Huskies. The kids didn't seem to mind the substitution because old Saint Nick was still the same red-faced old gent. The dogs belong to Claude Sanger, directly behind Santa, of Okmulgee, Okla.

Prefab Plant Announced at Jacksonville

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Plans of a Wisconsin firm to establish a branch plant to manufacture prefabricated homes in the Pulaski Industrial Park at Jacksonville were announced today by the chambers of commerce of Little Rock, North Little Rock and Jacksonville.

W. S. Mitchell, president of the Little Rock chamber, said Harnischfeger Homes Inc., a subsidiary of the Harnischfeger Corp. of Milwaukee, plans to employ about 75 persons, all men, when production starts about March 1 of next year.

Construction of a 31,200 square foot plant will begin within two weeks, Mitchell said.

Hugh Pierce, sales representative for Harnischfeger, said the Pulaski Industrial Park Inc. would build a factory building and lease it to the firm.

Harnischfeger Homes is headquartered at Port Washington, Wis.

Pierce said the decision to place a plant in Pulaski County was primarily due to the general prosperity and growth of Arkansas. He said the plant also would provide easy access to growing Southern markets.

The company will build about 1,500 prefabricated homes in the $10,000 to $40,000 price range.

Cats Are Very Much Like American Women, Rarely If Ever, Reveal Their Age

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Cats, like women, rarely reveal their age. They wouldn't tell the truth even if you put their paw on the Bible.

So it is I don't know for certain how old Lady Dottie is. She was in an advanced stage of kittenhood when she adopted our family some years back, and began to rule us with her iron whisks.

I would guess she is now in the equivalent of early middle age. Certainly she acts more like a spinster every day.

She has developed a bad case of xenophobia, or fear of strangers. Unlike a spinster, she doesn't look under her bed for strange men before retiring. She merely runs and hides under the sofa when a strange man enters the apartment, and usually stays there until he leaves.

Formerly she liked to escort me into the hall when I went to work, and stand there gravely waiting until the elevator had whisked me down. Looking at her I sometimes had the eerie feeling she was a kind of furred, four-footed wife, silent, telling me "Now work hard all day like a nice little husband earn me a good living, and be sure to get home early."

Lately, however, Lady Dottie has declined to go into the hall. She merely follows me to the door, gives a farewell rub against my legs and walks away.

Apparently she has lost nearly all curiosity about the outside world. Now and then she is stirred to a tail-lashing jungle

Weather in Arkansas Is Clear, Cool

Arkansas weather remained status quo today — mild days and chilly nights — as a high pressure ridge continued to dominate the state's weather picture.

Little change in the weather pattern is predicted by the Weather Bureau through Monday.

The forecast calls for clear to partly cloudy through Friday and a little warmer in the daytime with highs 54 to 64 and lows 25 to 35.

Gilbert was the coldest spot in the state today, with a low of 18. But temperatures dropped into the mid to upper 20s over most of the state. Highs Wednesday ranged from the mid 50s to low 60s.

Little or no rain is forecast for the state through the weekend.

Pays Ticket in a Fire Alarm

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A motorist deposited his overtime parking ticket in a fire alarm box in Little Rock Wednesday. Later he telephoned police and apologized for the mistake.

Five pumper trucks, a hook and ladder unit, a rescue unit and two chiefs' cars answered the deposit.

Carl B. Jones, 63, Succumbs Here Wednesday

Carl B. Jones, aged 63, resident of Hope for 40 years, died unexpectedly Wednesday afternoon. He was a native of Danville, Ark., and was mechanic for the City of Hope for many years.

Survivors include his wife, four sons, Billy Dan, Jack and Jerry Jones of Hope and Joe Jones of the U. S. Army at Fort Polk, La.; four brothers, Gene of Phoenix, Ariz., Nick of Gardena, Calif., Ed of Long Beach, Calif., and Paul Jones of Hope; three sisters, Mrs. Carmen Horton of Murray, Ky., Mrs. Lena Steed of Baldwin Park, Calif., and Mrs. Pauline Hunt of Fontana, Calif.

Services will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home by the Rev. Gordon Renshaw. Burial will be in Memory Gardens.

Thompson's Fate Now Up to the Jury

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The trial of T. Eugene Thompson on a charge of first-degree murder goes to the jury, probably late today, after closing arguments and the judge's instructions.

The 36-year-old St. Paul attorney could get life imprisonment. Minnesota does not have the death penalty.

Thompson is accused of arranging the slaying of his wife, Carol, 34, last March 6.

The prosecution contends Thompson wanted to collect $1,955,000 insurance on his wife's life and marry his ex-secretary, Mrs. Jacqueline Olesen, 27.

The jury has heard more than 100 witnesses in the 5½-week trial.

The defense claims Mrs. Thompson, mother of four children, was killed during a robbery. It contends Thompson had no part in a conspiracy to kill her.

Cotton Quota Vote Coming Up Dec. 10

The cotton quota vote coming up on Dec. 10 will mark the eleventh consecutive year in which growers have voted on marketing quotas for their upland cotton crop, Claude Self, Chairman Hempstead County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

"Beginning with the referendum on marketing quotas for the 1954 crop, growers have approved quotas for each year's cotton crop," he stated. "In the vote last year, on quotas for the 1963 upland cotton crop, 93.7 percent of the growers voting approved the quotas."

By law, quotas must be proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture in years when the cotton supply exceeds normal. The estimated 1963-64 total supply of upland cotton exceeds the estimated normal supply by 7.8 million bales.

For 1964, the Chairman explained, Hempstead County has a total of 8848 acres available for allotment to growers on which to grow their upland cotton crop. This represents Hempstead County's share of the national allotment acreage of 16,200,000 acres, which includes 200,000 acres from the national acreage reserve to take care of minimum farm allotments. Notices of individual farm acreage allotments will be mailed to operators of cotton farms in advance of the Dec. 10 referendum.

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum approve quotas for the 1964 upland cotton crop, price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to growers who comply with their farm allotments, and marketing quota penalties will apply to any "excess" cotton produced on a farm.

If more than one-third of the voters oppose quotas for the 1964 crop, the allotment program will remain in effect, and price support will be available to cooperators at 50 percent of parity, as provided by law.

All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1963 are eligible to vote in the Dec. 10 referendum.

Herbert H. Lehman Dies at Age 85

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert H. Lehman, 85, four times governor of New York and also a former senator, died today.

Lehman, a leader in his later years in a reform movement against the Democratic organization in New York, suffered a heart attack in his home at 820 Park Ave.

Lehman was regarded as the elder statesman of the Democratic party in New York and one of the party's most powerful figures in the state.

He suffered a broken hip in February while vacationing at Palm Springs, Calif., but had continued an active interest in politics.

He, with the late Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, had led the party's reform faction in its successful effort in 1961 to oust Carmine G. de Sapio, as leader of Tammany Hall, the powerful Manhattan Democratic organization.

Lehman was closely allied with the New Deal, Fair Deal and New Frontier wings of the party.

The late President John F. Kennedy reportedly was incensed when Lehman and Mrs. Roosevelt, attending a presidential campaign rally here in 1960, were not called upon by the regular leaders to speak.

When Kennedy finished his own speech, he turned and pointedly walked over to Mrs. Roosevelt and Lehman to shake their hands.

Capitol Lights Go on Dec. 14

The annual Christmas Lighting ceremonies at the Arkansas State Capitol will be held December 14 from 6:30 to 6 p. m., it was announced today by Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

The program officially ushers in the Yule season and is carried on many Arkansas television stations.

Speakers include Gov. Orval Faubus and Dr. Ralph Phelps president of Ouachita College. Dr. L. T. Lawrence of Hope will give the invocation and the Hendrix College Choir will sing.

Ex-Premier of Pakistan Heart Victim

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Former Pakistani Prime Minister Hussein S. Suhrawardy died of a heart attack early today. He was 72.

Suhrawardy had come to Beirut for medical treatment after a previous heart attack. He was staying at a local hotel.

His body will be flown to Karachi for burial Friday.

Suhrawardy was a controversial figure in Pakistan politics. He loved the diplomatic social whirl. To the horror of straight-laced Moslems, he introduced social dancing to Islamic Pakistan shortly after becoming prime minister in September 1956.

He resigned 13 months later following a dispute with Republicans in his coalition Cabinet over reorganizing West Pakistan into four or more provinces. Suhrawardy, head of the Awami (People's) League, opposed the idea.

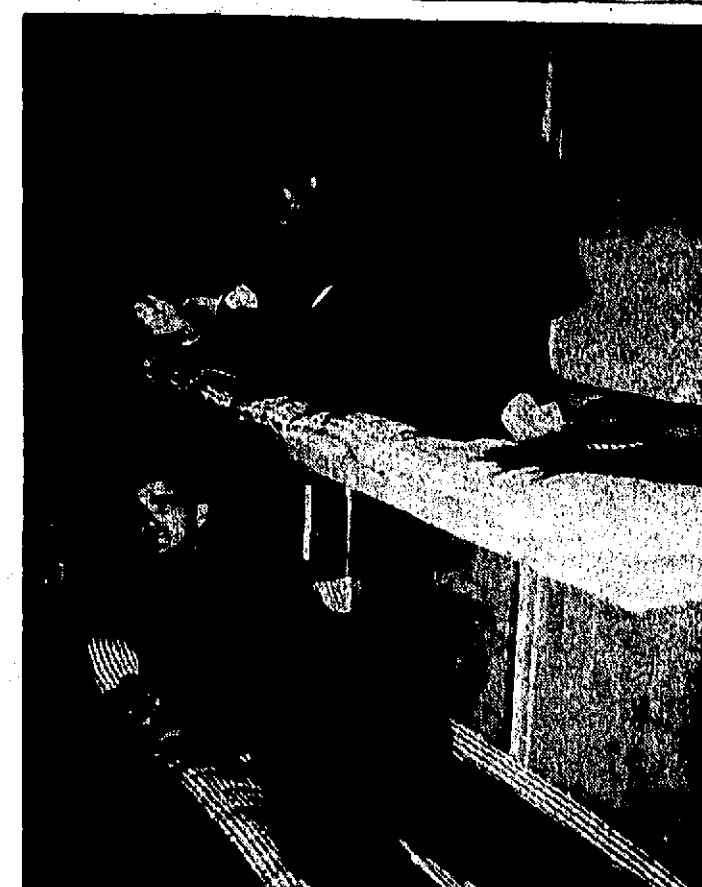

In January 1962, the military government of President Ayub Khan jailed him for seven months on suspicion of "anti-state activities." He was released on Aug. 19, 1962, but the government never specified the exact reason for his arrest.

Flowers Cover the Spot Where Kennedy Fell; Note Asks, Is Dallas to Blame?

By JACK KEEVER

DALLAS (AP) — "People bring flowers for him but that doesn't help any—he's dead now."

These words came from a small boy, holding his father's hand near the site where a sniper's bullets ended the life of John F. Kennedy.

He was looking at dozens of floral wreaths on grassy plots at each side of the sloping street where Kennedy was assassinated Nov. 22.

Most of the flowers have been there more than a week. They are wilted. Many are strewn on the grass.

A few small American flags are stuck in the ground. One large Australian flag is there, placed by a man who told police he was an artist and gave them a sketch he had done of the late President, the sketch was signed "Gordon Currie."

A few notes at the scene express sympathy for Mrs. Kennedy and her children, Caroline and John Jr. one reads: "Please do not blame Dallas. The good Lord had his reason."

A Bible lies open on the ground. Apparently no scripture was marked.

Across the street at the Texas School Book Depository Building, from which police say the fatal shots were fired, there was little activity Wednesday. A policeman stood at the door. No one is allowed on the sixth floor, where the assassin lay in wait.

The crowds of mourners and curious visitors which at first almost caused traffic accidents are much smaller. Most passers-by take pictures.

Mrs. Kennedy Painting for Xmas Cards

NEW YORK (AP)—A growing trend in Christmas cards painted by artists of renown and sold for the benefit of charitable or cultural projects has a new and distinguished contributor.

She signs her paintings "JBK," for Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy.

Two cards bearing reproductions of Mrs. Kennedy's paintings are being distributed by Hallmark Cards, Inc. Net proceeds will go to the proposed National Cultural Center in Washington.

Mrs. Kennedy had suggested several months ago that she design the cards for the benefit of the center. A bill has been introduced in Congress to name the center for her husband, the late President John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Kennedy's cards are reproductions of original water color paintings she completed earlier this year. "The Journey of the Magi" depicts the three Wise Men on their way to Jerusalem. "Glad Tidings" portrays an an-

FBI Seeking Amateur Pix Assassination

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the presidential commission investigating President Kennedy's assassination said today the bipartisan body should leave "a detailed report for the people behind us."

The commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, held its first meeting today to set up machinery and procedures for its top-level inquiry.

Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., one of four members of Congress named to the commission by President Johnson, told a reporter:

"I don't want the same situation that we have now, with a play running on Broadway with the theme: Who shot Abraham Lincoln?"

Boggs said he could not say whether the commission should hold public hearings. This presumably among the questions on the agenda of the meeting.

A presidential order empowers the commission to "evaluate all available information" on the shooting in Dallas and to conduct "any further investigation it deems desirable." Johnson is expected to turn over to the group the exhaustive report now being prepared by the FBI.

Although this report was understood to be close to completion, FBI agents in Dallas were still probing for evidence on the accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, and the subsequent slaying of Oswald by Jack Ruby, owner of Dallas striptease clubs. Ruby goes to trial Feb. 3. The FBI asked the Eastman Kodak laboratories in Dallas to send memos to all those who had sent in film for processing. The memos request that camera owners get in touch with the FBI if their prints show pictures of the assassin.

Dragon Lady Levels Blast at U.S.A.

ROME (AP)—Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, widowed former First Lady of South Viet Nam, left by plane for Paris today and on departure delivered a new tirade against the United States and Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

She handed out a written four-page statement in rather confused English calling Lodge a "bewildered nanny" in the hands of the "South Vietnamese assassins."

She expressed guarded hope that President Johnson's policy in South Viet Nam would be better than President Kennedy's. She added, however:

"We must pray . . . that the new American policy never sinks into catastrophic innocence or candid malignity, to be loyal and faithful only with gangsters."

She was reported going to Paris to confer with a French publisher about printing her memoirs.

She took along her son, Quynh, 11, and her daughter, Le Quyen, 4. Her other daughter, Le Thuy, 18, and son, Trac, 15, went to Paris Nov. 26 to enroll in French schools.

FOR FARM MACHINERY

Efficient, profitable farm operations demand trouble-free, up-to-date farm machinery. You may not purchase all your machinery from one dealer — but you should take advantage of PCA's single source of credit! Not only will you save money by having the cash to buy what you need — at a lower cost — but by dealing exclusively with PCA, you eliminate multiple interest costs. For details contact:

Delta Kappa Gamma Meets In Hyatt Home

Pink and gold Christmas decorations were seen in the home of Mrs. Florence Hyatt on Tuesday, December 3, when she and Mrs. Marie Holt entertained the Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma.

In keeping with the approaching Yuletide season, Mrs. Muriel June McLarty conducted a quiz on Christmas Carols. She also had a Christmas meditation that included a poem, "America At Christmas-time," and the Teacher's Prayer.

Mrs. Mildred McPherson led a helpful discussion of the D. F. G. Constitution. Mrs. Marie Holt, president, conducted the business meeting and urged all members to save the Christmas cards they receive and old hosiery for the group's service project. Mrs. Mary Nell Turner read correspondence from the Women's Auxiliary of the Arkansas Medical Association to Women's organizations in the asking for books and funds for the TB Sanatorium library. A committee was appointed to take contributions from each local school.

Coming and Going

DIVORCEE IN THE ROLE OF COMFORTER

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I am a divorcee in love with a married man who has led a heck of a life for the last eight years. His wife sleeps in a separate room, comes and goes as she pleases and barks at being seen with him. I give him love and understanding, treat him like a man and let him boss me as much as he will. We go everywhere together. Result: restoration of confidence in himself.

He plans to divorce, marry me and start life over again. He has three children by this woman. She won't give them up. I have two children by my former husband. They will live with us. Honest-to-goodness, you could never find a nicer man than this one I love so much. It's pitiful to see how grateful he is for the least kindness.

But happy as I am in our love, my conscience plagues me. It was another woman who broke up my first marriage. So I feel sorry for this man's wife — cold as she is. Would I be wrong if I let him divorce her and marry me? — Jane

Dear Jane: You now find yourself in the position of the "other woman." Granted that both men and women are fickle, I seriously doubt that any marriage can be broken up by a third person if it is based on firm ground. By firm ground I mean the sincere determination of one or both partners to hold the marriage together come hell or high water.

Your compassion for this man's wife leads me to suspect that you have a residue of guilt in regard to the fulfillment of your role of wife and mother of two children. Given the opportunity you would undoubtedly have had plenty to say to your rival for your former husband's affections.

"Cold as she is," the wife of your current suitor might be able to tell you quite a different version of the sob story he has given you. Apparently she has no intention of giving him a divorce, or their children. All of which means that if he is really serious about you he will have to get the divorce for the price of the children.

Call a moratorium to the amsee Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKinley. Mrs. Collins has returned home, but Mrs. Hungerford remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O'Bryant went to Little Rock Monday for the Retirement Party for Ralph Johnson, general manager of the Missouri Pacific Southern District.

The hostesses served Christmas plum pudding and Russian tea to 18 for refreshments. A biguous relationship until he decides what should be done. There should be no pressure from you. Freedom of choice is basic to our happiness. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Divorce and Separation."

Dear Helen: I am looking for a pen pal in West Germany. My guidance counselor at high was unable to help me so I wrote the Girl Scouts leader in my state. No results. Have you any suggestions? — Friendly Teenage Girl

Dear Friendly: Call or write the Junior Red Cross chapter in your area. Ask your English or German teacher for other suggestions.

Dear Helen: My mother has been sick and I try to help her as much as possible. She says, "Don't break your back for me. Yet she likes to see me make use of my accomplishments which are cooking and home-making. She gets up at 7:30 A. M. I'm a sleepy head. This worries me. What time should I get to bed in order to be up ahead of her? —Eleven-Year-Old Worker

Dear Worker: The old rule which still holds good is eight hours sleep, eight hours work, eight hours play. Since life is largely a matter of habit, discipline yourself into going to bed at 10:30. Set the alarm clock for 6:30 and place it out of reach.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MOP Request Is Opposed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hot Springs' City Council filed a formal protest with the state Commerce Commission Tuesday to the proposed discontinuation of two Missouri Pacific Lines passenger trains between Hot Springs and Little Rock.
The commission is to consider MoPac's application of Nov. 12 today.
Trains 37 and 38 between the cities would be discontinued.

Car Rams Trucks, Girls Are Killed

ELKINS, Ark. (AP) — Jean Marie Skelton, 16, of Elkins was killed and two other persons were injured early today when the car in which they were riding rammed into the rear of a stalled log truck on state Highway 16 a mile east of Elkins.
Mrs. Leonard Young, whose husband was driving the car, and her 3-year-old daughter, Glenda, were injured. They were taken to a Fort Smith hospital. Young was not hurt.

State Trooper Tom Williams said the Young car topped a hill and Young was blinded by lights of an oncoming car and did not see the stalled log truck in time to stop. The logs rammed through the windshield of the Young car, Williams said.

The Youngs also live at Elkins, 11 miles southeast of Fayetteville.

Kelso Named Race Horse of the Year

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — To the surprise of nobody, Kelso from Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Bohemia Stable was named today as America's champion thoroughbred race horse for the fourth straight year by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Kelso also was the chosen Horse of the Year in a poll conducted by Turf and Sports Division completing his sweep of the balloting.

The swift - running gelding, who needs only $168,167 to pass Round Table as the world's leading money winning horse, began his reign as a 3-year-old in 1960. He was the unanimous choice of the TRA Board of Selection this year.

His earnings of $569,762 this season brought his life-time bankroll to $1,581,702 for 31 victories in 45 starts.

Kelso's only out-of-the-money performance this year was in his debut in the seven-furlong Palm Beach Handicap at Hialeah Park, when he was fourth back of Ridan, Jaipur and Merry Ruler.

Planning Council Held

The Planning Council of the Twelfth Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church was held at the Bethel A.M.E. Church, North Little Rock, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 2-3, 1963.

Highlights of this meeting were the noonday sermon on Tuesday, which was preached by Dr. G. Wayman Blakeley, Pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, St. Louis, Mo., the Richard Allen Achievement Award to Dr. Lawrence A. Davis, President of A. M. & N. College, Pine Bluff, Ark.

Annual reports were made by the Presiding Elders of the District on Monday; a meeting of the delegates to the forthcoming General Conference which will be held in Cincinnati, Ohio May 6-10, 1964, was held Tuesday afternoon, at which time General Conference Committees were appointed.

Attending from Hope were Mrs. E. L. Hicks and Rev. Jimmy Jones. Mrs. Hicks was appointed to the Minimum Salary Committee and the Committee on Special Courtships.

Among the visitors at this meeting was the Rev. O. L. Sherman, Presiding Bishop of the Tenth Episcopal District (Texas), and Rev. Jim Granberry of Tennessee, a member of the General Board of the A.M.E. Church.

Three Shocking Upsets in College Play

Fifth-ranked Wichita, NIT champion Providence and powerful Louisville had trouble finding the basket, but it was Notre Dame that was seeing double.

Wichita, Providence and Louisville were victims of shocking upsets Wednesday night while Notre Dame ran into a pair of twin terrors—Tom and Dick Van Arsdale of Indiana, who combined for 76 points in a 108-102 victory over the Irish.

Wichita became the first member of the top ten to lose a game as two foul shots by Steve Tradenick clinched a 75-74 victory for unheralded Texas Western. Providence bowed to Assumption, Mass., 83-80 and Louisville was jolted 78-65 by Eastern Kentucky.

Two other top ten teams saw action — second-ranked NYU and third-ranked Cincinnati—and both had difficulty. Barry Kramer and Happy Hairston led the Violets from behind for a 82-65 victory over Cornell and the Bearcats stalled in the closing minutes to hold off Miami, Ohio, 60-56.

In other top games, sophomore Steve Renko, a football quarterback, threw in 10 key points as Kansas whipped Arkansas 73-60. Stan Luechtefeld dropped in two foul shots to clinch St. Louis' 81-78 decision over Illinois. Purdue's Mel Garland hit for 27 points in an 86-80 victory over Detroit and Virginia Tech handed Mississippi State its first defeat at home in three years, 93-77, with Howard Pardue scoring 32 points.

Indiana had difficulty with Notre Dame throughout but finally pulled ahead after 6-foot-8 Larry Jesewitz fouled out. Jon McGlockin's basket put the Hoosiers ahead 86-85 and the Van Arsdale twins took it from there. Dick collected 42 points, Tom 34 as they hit on 29 of 53 shots.

NYU had difficulty getting its fast-break patterns working smoothly and trailed Cornell by as many as seven points before Kramer and Hairston triggered the Violets' second half comeback. Kramer scored 23 points, Hairston 22.

Cincinnati not only had difficulty, but its hands full. With 1-25 left, baskets by Charlie Coles moved Miami within 57-33 and Coach Ed Jucker sent the Bearcats into a freeze that held off the Redskins. Ron Bonham topped Cincinnati with 26 points.

Top scoring honors for the night went to a loser, Manny Newsome of Western Michigan. Newsome scored 45 points on 17 field goals and all 11 of his foul shots, but a tip-in by Marcus Sanders with 20 seconds left gave Michigan State a 101-100 victory.

Elsewhere, Dan Walters led the way with 16 points as California defeated St. Mary's, Calif., 65-50, sophomore Richie Moore took scoring honors for Villanova with 25 points in a 72-59 victory over Princeton, sophomore Henry Finkel scored 22 in Dayton's 74-48 walloping of California at Davis and Ernie Thompson and Levern Tart each collected 25 for Bradley in a 101-70 thumping of Idaho State.

Kansas City Too Rich for Detroit Lions

DETROIT (AP)—Kansas City snagged the Detroit Lions' top National Football League draft choice because the bidding was too rich — even for millionaire owner William Clay Ford.

Lamar Hunt (oil millionaire owner of the American Football League franchise at Kansas City) apparently was prepared to go first cabin all the way, Ford said Wednesday. He made the comment after Kansas City landed quarterback Pete Beathard of Southern California.

"But he's welcome to the boy," Ford added. "It's good riddance for us at those prices." Admittedly stunned by the deal Beathard made for himself, Ford said he "wouldn't dare match an offer" like Kansas City's. He described it as "exorbitant and unrealistic."

According to Ford, the rival AFL club beat out the Lions by handing Beathard:

1. A bonus in excess of $15,000 for signing.
2. A no-cut contract calling for more than $20,000 a year.
3. A paid-up life insurance policy.
4. Option on shares of stock in a West Coast pay-TV corporation, cost of which would be financed by Kansas City.
5. A new car.
6. Free rent in an apartment for an unspecified duration, but presumably for no less than a year.

The Lions reportedly went as high as a $20,000 contract offer in their attempts to land Beathard, their No. 1 choice in last Monday's NFL draft and Kansas City's top pick in the AFL draft last Saturday.

Georgia Hires New Coach From Auburn

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—Vincent Joseph Vince Dooley, 31-year-old freshman coach from Auburn, has taken over as head football coach at Georgia in a move to get the Bulldogs back on the winning road after three losing seasons.

Dooley succeeded Johnny Griffith, who compiled a 10-16-4 record during three years of unrest in the Georgia athletic department. Griffith resigned Wednesday, effective Jan. 31.

Dooley is the second young coach to be named head of a Southeastern Conference football team in three days. Douglas Dickey, 31, an assistant on Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas staff, was selected Monday to replace Jim McDonald at Tennessee.

The Georgia athletic board accepted Griffith's resignation Wednesday, unanimously approved Dooley's selection and signed him to a four-year contract. His salary was not announced.

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Coach Paul Dietzel and his Army football team might be excited for tossing around in their bunks these nights, wondering aloud:

"What is Navy going to pull this time?" In recent years the Midshipmen haven't been content just to show up with apparently superior personnel. They've won the last four games. They announced.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Dooley was quarterback of Auburn's 1953 Gator Bowl team coached by Ralph Jordan. After serving in the Marines, he returned to Auburn in 1956 as a backfield assistant. He has been freshman coach since 1961.

Griffith, 39, said he has not decided whether to accept an offer to remain with the university in the physical education department.

evitably come up with a gimmick that seems to toss the Cadets for a loop.

It could happen again Saturday when the Middies from Annapolis and the Black Knights from West Point clash in their 64th meeting at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

Wayne Hardin, the red-haired Navy coach, seems to get a puckish delight out of springing nerve-jarring tricks which are kept in closest secrecy until just before the kickoff.

In 1959, the game that started the current streak, Hardin installed a brand-new formation for the Army game — a formation calling for wide flankers and plays not used all year.

Score: Navy 43, Army 12. The next year — 1960 — Army was expecting some more of the same skulduggery. The Knights were ready for anything — and were waiting for it. Hardin suspected this, so he didn't change a play. The other shoe didn't drop.

Score: Navy 17, Army 12. In 1961, Navy warmed up in regular attire. Then, just before the kickoff, the Middies loped onto the field with their "Flaming Mamie" helmets. If the Army team was stunned, the 100-

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Naval Academy midshipmen, brimming over with enthusiasm for the Army - Navy football game, poured out of the Academy Wednesday night and through the streets of downtown

000 spectators were half-blinded. The helmets were painted with luminous aircraft paint — a garish orange color. On the sleeves of their jerseys, Navy men had inscribed: "Beat Army."

Score: Navy 13, Army 7. Last year, the Middies had an answer for Army's celebrated Chinese Bandits, the defensive unit plan which Dietzel had employed so effectively at Louisiana State.

On the front of every Navy helmet were inscribed the words: "Jolly Roger." On one side was written the word "Beat" and on the other the word "Army." Nothing very trick about that, except the words were inscribed in Chinese.

Annapolis.

Several hundred of the shouting Middies descended on the governor's mansion and called in vain for Gov. J. Millard Tawes.

"They banged on the door and frightened us out of our wits," said Mrs. Evelyn Andrews, hostess at Government House. She said Gov. Tawes was out of town and she and Mrs. Tawes were asleep when the swarm of midshipmen arrived shortly after 10 p.m.

Midshipmen officers, aided by Annapolis city police, rounded up the sign-carrying celebrants and headed them back to the academy.

Academy officials said it was an impromptu pep rally for the football game in Philadelphia Saturday.

The regular pep rally and bonfire is scheduled Thursday night. "I guess they just couldn't wait," an Academy spokesman said.

Parilli Is AL Back of the Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Babe Parilli heard the boo birds Sunday in the first half. He also must have seen the writing on the wall with the morning papers headlining the news that the Boston Patriots had drafted young Jack Concannon of Boston College for 1964.

With the fans yelling "We want (Tom) Yewick", Parilli gathered the Patriots together and led them to a 17-7 victory over the Buffalo Bills that boosted Boston into a tie for the lead in the Eastern Division of the American Football League.

On the strength of that second half comeback, Parilli was named today Associated Press Player of the Week in the American Football League.

The Babe threw a touchdown pass to Larry Garrison for 44 yards and set up another with a 63-yard pass to Art Graham. Parilli scored that one himself. San Diego had a pair of candidates in Keith Lincoln and

Porkers Take Second Loss of Season

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Arkansas' Razorbacks took their second thumping of the season Wednesday night when a pair of Kansas sophomores dumped in key points, 73-60.

Steve Renko reported just two days ago after quarterbacking the football team. He hit 10 points and provided the Jayhawks with outstanding play-making.

Wayne Loving came on with the score 10-9, hit three buckets, and started Kansas to a 32-22 halftime lead.

Arkansas now is 1-2. The Razorbacks trailed by seven or more points throughout the second half. Jim Magness put in 17 points for Arkansas and George Unseld hit 14 to lead Kansas.

Hockey Loop Has a New Iron Man

CHICAGO (AP)—Andy Heberton, 34-year-old Boston Bruin right winger, became the National Hockey League's new iron-man Wednesday night.

He played in his 581st consecutive game as the league-leading Chicago Black Hawks tied the Bruins 2-2 on Bobby Hull's goal at 19:29 of the final period. Toronto beat Montreal 3-0 in the other NHL game scheduled Wednesday at Toronto.

"I guess it is the thrill of my career to set the record," said Heberton, who has played eight years without missing a game. "I hope they let me play 581 more. I feel good. Naturally, I wish we had won. The game got away from us."

Heberton, a native of Winnipeg, began his streak on Oct. 7, 1955 in Chicago Stadium when he was with the New York Rangers. He was with that club until Boston drafted him last summer.

He said his key to endurance is simple:

"First, you have to have a lot of luck. Second, you must avoid major injuries. And third, you have to stay in condition."

Heberton cracked the NHL mark of 580 straight games set by Johnny Wilson when he played from 1952-1960. Five of his seasons were with Detroit, two with Chicago and one with Toronto.

Paul Lowe, who led the Chargers to a 27-0 romp over Houston in a game that had been billed as a preview of the AFL title game. The defeat knocked Houston into a tie with Boston.

Picture About Oswald Not Very Pretty

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The picture of Lee Harvey Oswald which emerges so far is that of a crybaby, self-centered, undisciplined, half-educated, a mind too poor to understand what he read, and with delusions about himself.

When the facts are all in, he may look different. But this ex-Marine, 24, assassinated after being charged with killing President John F. Kennedy, was a nobody who clearly wanted to be somebody.

It may turn out he was part of a conspiracy. But the information revealed up to this time indicates the exact opposite. He called himself a Marxist without seeming to understand a Marxist revolution is a job for an organization. Oswald was too undisciplined to be a good organization man.

He boasted about the books he had read, but he never learned to spell well. He was dissatisfied with the American society but never learned how to do a job well enough to keep it so he could support himself in this society.

And while he kept talking of a more perfect society, in this one he skipped out on his rent. He called himself pro-Castro and anti-Castro. He glorified the Soviet Union and wanted to write a book condemning it.

He complained about the hardships his mother had suffered during the depression, before he was born, but the evidence indicates that after he was able to go to work, he contributed little or nothing to her support.

He complained to a family friend he was out of work and his wife was expecting their second baby. The friend drove to New Orleans for the wife and first child, returned to her home in Dallas with them, and took care of them for weeks.

Oswald apparently never contributed a nickel to this woman friend of the family for the support of his wife and child and second baby but, instead, went to Mexico to arrange a trip for himself to Europe.

His problem started early. In the very short time he and his mother lived in New York he became such a delinquent in school he was given a psychiatric examination. He was found to be "wild." Perhaps the delusions showed up then.

At 17 he quit school to go into the Marines. He didn't do well under the discipline. He was court-martialed twice and was in constant conflict with other Marines.

He was given a special hardship discharge so he could go home and help his mother, who had been badly injured at her job.

Instead of staying with his mother to help, he got a job on a freighter and, unknown to his mother but with $1,000 saved up from his Marine days, went to the Soviet Union.

In Moscow he called a news conference to announce he was defecting and wanted to become a Soviet citizen. He called himself a Marxist, said he was the youngest in the United States.

This demonstrated, at least, that he had some delusions about his importance. The Russians seemed unimpressed, withheld citizenship, and gave him a job in a factory at Minsk.

Two things happened: He got married and became disillusioned with the Soviet Union. The idea of working at the same job perhaps became too much for his undisciplined spirit. Perhaps he felt frustrated by being treated as just another worker.

The fact that he had to go to the Soviet Union to understand how it operated — that there was absolute discipline under the Communists and discipline meant work because the Communists dislike bums — is as good an insight as any into the poor quality of his mind and his stability.

He was allowed to return to his country by the American government after three years in the Soviet Union. Here he bounced around from job to job, never really competent in anything except the most menial jobs.

In the meantime he tried to call attention to himself as pro-Castro and anti-Castro. He got into a television discussion on communism and Marxism and made a mess of himself.

Last September he went to the Cuban Consulate in Mexico City to get a visa to Cuba and the Soviet Union. When he was told it would take time he stormed out, slamming the door.

It's possible Oswald then felt rejected by both Moscow and Cuba. This is also possible, if he is the man who killed Kennedy, that he decided he would single-handedly show the Soviet and Cuban Communists how a revolutionist should act by killing the President.

He never seemed to understand that the really effective revolutionists—like Lenin, Stalin, Khrushchev—did not act singly but as part of an organization.

They looked upon the individual trying some crime on his own not as a revolutionary but as a romantic. For a Communist

Skeleton Is Identified

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A skeleton found Sunday by two teen-age girls was identified by Little Rock police Monday as that of Guy Brown, 82, a Negro of Little Rock.

The skeleton was found in a densely wooded area near the Little Rock industrial district. Police said there was no evidence of foul play. Brown had been missing since May 17, they said.

Brown's identity was established through a key found in his clothing. His landlady confirmed that the key was to Brown's apartment.

There is nothing so deserving of contempt as a romantic.

Pope Extends Powers of the Bishops

By EUGENE LEVIN

Associated Press Staff Writer

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI decreed a vast reform of Roman Catholic worship today, called on the bishops of his church to share with him in its government, and then announced he would make an historic trip to the Holy Land next month.

The 66-year-old Roman Catholic ruler, in office scarcely five months, took the actions at a momentous closing meeting in St. Peter's Basilica of the second session of his Ecumenical Council.

He and his bishops gave Roman Catholicism its first two council decrees in 93 years—one on liturgy, the other on mass communications — and then recessed the council until September.

But Pope Paul made clear that the nine-month recess would not be an idle period. He told the council's drafting commissions to rework all pending documents so that they might be completed at the assembly's next session.

By BENNET M. BOLTON
Associated Press Staff Writer
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI reduced the dependence of Roman Catholic bishops on the Vatican Curia today, extending them certain limited powers on a permanent basis.

The Roman Catholic pontiff, appearing in person before the Vatican Ecumenical Council, promulgated a decree which apparently put him on the side of progressive bishops of collegiality—the concept that the bishops as a whole share with the Pope in authority over the Church.

The main power granted by the Pope was the right for the bishops to exercise on their own 40 faculties, or powers, they previously could use only on application to the Curia.

Pope Paul also granted eight privileges, or concessions. One is entirely new for bishops. It is the privilege, previously possessed only by cardinals, to preach and hear confessions anywhere in the world, and not in their own dioceses alone.

The other seven privileges—like the faculties—were previously allowed on application.

One of the most important grants is the right of bishops to decide marriage cases involving "The Pauline Privilege," without consulting the Vatican.

These are marriages involving two unbaptized persons, one of whom decides after marriage to become a Catholic. If the other objects, "The Pauline Privilege" allows their marriage to be dissolved after the one is converted. The converted Catholic is free to marry again.

The privilege is named after St. Paul because the concept is derived from his letter to the Corinthians.

Another faculty permits bishops to allow illegitimate youths to enter the priesthood.

Bishops are also allowed to grant permission to Catholics to read books on the index of reading matter forbidden by the Church when the books are used for research or study purposes.

Most of the powers, including the one concerning the index, previously were obtained by bishops for 5 and 10-year periods on application to the Vatican. The applications usually were approved and renewed as a matter of course.

The original town of Monticello was called "Old Rough and Ready."

a personal extension phone

This busy homemaker finds her days are easier and she gets more done because a phone is where she is. Her own personal extension phone in the kitchen often helps her do two things at once, like watching dinner and phoning a special list. For a helper in your kitchen, order a colorful personal extension phone from the telephone business office.

Sweet Citrus Christmas Gifts

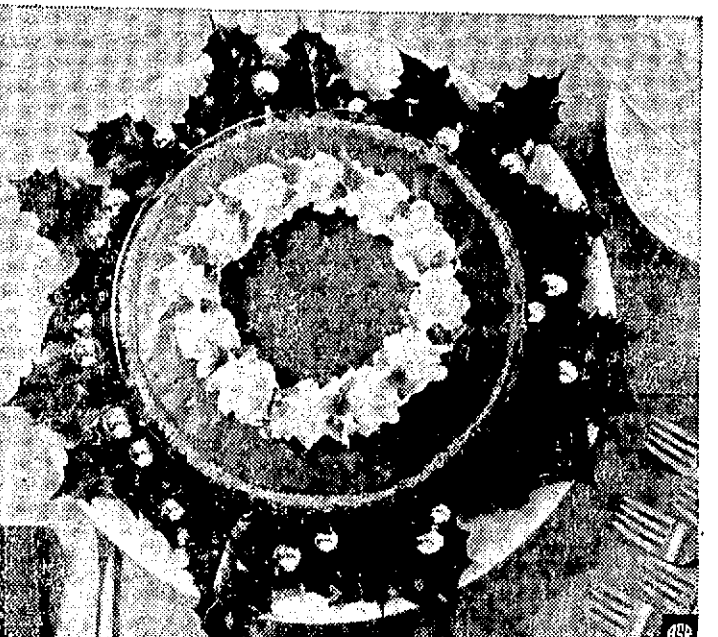

The sweetest, most personal Christmas gifts are made in your own kitchen with Florida's juicy oranges, and at a minimum cost.

Pomander Balls. Large firm Florida oranges. Powdered orange root. Ground cinnamon. Select large firm Florida oranges for making pomanders. Stick whole cloves into the peel of the orange until completely covered with cloves. The cloves may be inserted into the orange peel more easily if the holes have been made with the tines of a fork, or a very sharp pencil point. Roll in a mixture of equal parts of orange root and ground cinnamon. Use about 1 1/2 tablespoons of the combined spices for each orange. Pat in as much of the powdered mixture as will adhere to the orange. Wrap the pomander in tissue or cellophane paper. As pomander dries and shrinks, it develops its spicy fragrance. Remove from paper, shake off any loose powder and the pomander is ready for use in linen and clothes closets. To hang in closet, tie the pomander with a piece of ribbon ending in a loop. Pomanders keep their fragrance for many years and make pretty and inexpensive gifts. "Buy in pharmacy."

Florida Orange Bread. 3/4 cup orange rind, sliced, 1 1/2 cups Florida orange juice (about 4 Florida oranges), 3 eggs, well beaten, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 4 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 cup water, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 teaspoons salt. Remove the thin orange rind and cut into very thin slivers. Combine sugar and water; add rind, stir constantly over heat until sugar is dissolved; cook slowly 5 minutes. (The peel and syrup should measure 1 1/2 cups.) Add butter; stir until melted; add orange juice and beaten eggs. Sift dry ingredients together into mixing bowl. Add orange mixture and mix just enough to moisten ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Bake in greased and lined loaf pan 9 x 5 x 3 inches, in slow oven (325°F.) 1 hour 15 minutes. Turn out on rack to cool. YIELD: 1 loaf.

Spectacular Christmas Pie

Whatever the dessert at holiday dinner, it must be of a spectacular nature—and one of the handsomest is Christmas Chocolate Pie. The chocolate chiffon goes into a crust of mellow corn flake crumbs. The pie derives its chocolate flavor from semi-sweet chocolate morsels, the same candy-like morsels the children love for out-of-hand nibbling. And thanks to the presence of reliable unflavored gelatin, the filling requires little cooking—only the few minutes necessary to dissolve the unflavored gelatin and melt the chocolate morsels. For the rest, Christmas Chocolate Pie simply chills until ready for serving.

Christmas Chocolate Pie. Crumb Crust: 4 cups corn flakes, crushed, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 cup corn flake crumbs, 3/4 cup butter or margarine. Put corn flake crumbs, sugar, and butter in a 9-inch pie pan. Place in moderate oven (350°F.) 5 minutes or until butter melts; remove. Mix well and press mixture evenly and firmly around sides and on bottom of pie pan. Chill. Filling: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup sugar, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped. Mix together unflavored gelatin, sugar and salt in saucepan. Stir in milk and semi-sweet chocolate morsels. Place over medium heat, stirring constantly, until morsels are melted, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat; beat with a rotary beater until chocolate is blended. Stir in vanilla. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon, about 15 minutes. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into prepared pie shell. Chill until firm. If desired, make wreath on top of pie with circle of additional whipped cream; garnish with pieces of candied cherries and citron. YIELD: 1 9-inch pie.

Has Praise for Secret Service Man

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson described Secret Service agent Rufus W. Youngblood today as "one of the most noble and able public servants I have ever known." Johnson spoke in the White House flower garden during a ceremony in which Youngblood, 39, received the Treasury Department's exceptional service award for, in Johnson's words, offering his life to save another—Johnson's. The award is the Treasury's highest for exceptional bravery. The Secret Service is an arm of the Treasury. It was the second such award presented to a Secret Service agent for actions on the day of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas. One was presented Tuesday to agent Clinton J. Hill who ran to the presidential limousine and shielded Mrs. Kennedy after the shots were fired. Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon read the citation to Youngblood as the agent's wife and four children watched proudly. The citation said: "Mr. Youngblood was riding in the front seat of the vice president's limousine within close proximity to the President's limousine when the assassination President said today that James shot, Mr. Youngblood instantly vaulted across the front seat of the car, pushed the vice president to the floor, and shielded the vice president to the floor, and shielded the vice president's body with his own. His prompt response in the face of great danger and his readiness to sacrifice his life to save the vice president were in the highest traditions of the secret service."

Disbarment Suit Filed on Flowers

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Bar Rules Committee filed a disbarment suit in Jefferson Circuit Court Tuesday against Harold Flowers, a Pine Bluff Negro attorney. The suit, signed by E. B. Dillon of Little Rock, secretary of the committee, charged Flowers with co-mingling a client's funds with his own funds in a bank account and using the client's funds for his own purposes. Flowers is former president of the state branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He once was active in school desegregation efforts. The suit said Flowers handled an estate for a widow and our children, one of them a minor, and held $2,660 for the minor child until he was 21 as the child's share of a land sale. The suit said Flowers did not upon demand pay the whole amount. The suit asks that Flowers' license to practice law be revoked. The Bar Rules Committee is a group of seven lawyers appointed by the state Supreme Court.

Eisenhower Owed a Lot to Johnson

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — If President Dwight D. Eisenhower's record with Congress looked good at all—in getting things done and programs through—he owed a lot of thanks to Lyndon B. Johnson, the new President. For six of Eisenhower's eight White House years the Democrats ran Congress and Johnson, a man of tremendous drive, ran the Senate. This tall Texan was the most effective Senate leader in the century, probably in history. It was not the result of personality. He lacked the immediate charm of President John F. Kennedy. He was not a distinguished speaker. But he did his homework and did it prodigiously. Because he is that kind of man, he will work enormously at the presidency. Any mistakes will be mistakes of judgment. They won't come from lack of trying. He was a master of detail. He knew where every senator stood on every issue and, before voting time where every senator was or was going to be. He befriended all of them when he could and thus was able to expect their support when he needed it. His egotism, and he has a lot of it, didn't stand in the way of his accomplishment. Because the egotism is a natural part of him, he carries it into the White House with him. Just because of his egotism—because it makes success necessary for him—he will be hard-driven to succeed. When he is in charge, there is never any doubt who is boss. He showed this in the Senate. While it was resented by some of his fellow-Democrats—particularly the liberals—it was one of the keys to his effectiveness. He can't leave this part of his nature behind him at the White House door, either. Johnson, sensitive to criticism will now, like any other president, get a lot of it. His Senate years prepared him for it, although he may not take it lying down. Johnson proved himself a master of politics and of handling men in his Senate years. But handling foreign affairs has been outside his experience. He faces here a new challenge in which to prove himself. Of all the leadership arts he used in the Senate—a place full of prima donnas with strong feelings on many issues—the one Johnson used most visibly was compromise, like grease to get a bill through warring factions. His technique was to get both sides to make some concessions, even though both sides were less than pleased with the result. For example: It happened once in a struggle between Southern Democrats and Northern liberals. At the end the captain of the Southerners, Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., said it was a sad day. The captain of the liberals, Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., called it a victory for the South. But it was Johnson—and not one but Johnson could have done it—who steered through the Senate the first two civil rights bills since Reconstruction days in the 19th century. They weren't much, but they opened the door to stronger measures later. Kennedy this year wanted a stronger one. Johnson supported him. Since he is no longer in the Senate, one of the first big steps of his presidency will come on the civil rights issue. Says Mail Won't Speed Congress WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., said Monday a flood of mail urging speed is not likely to cause Congress to act any more quickly on President Lyndon B. Johnson's legislative recommendations. Harris said procedures of the House and Senate must be followed despite increasing pressure to hurry legislation. Congress will probably remain in session until just before the Christmas holidays, Harris said, working on such priority legislation as appropriations bills. Harris has shown enthusiasm for Johnson's recommendations that the government set an example of prudence and economy. He said Congressional mail after Johnson's address to Congress last week expressed full support for the recommendations.

Two Sides to Every U.S. President

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are two Presidents Johnson just as there were two Presidents Kennedy: the public president and the president at work inside the White House.

One is the talking president, saying the nice and pleasant things that cheer the American heart even when dressed in generalities and sometimes decorated with the obvious.

The other is the doing president, busy with problems and people in the privacy of his office or on the telephone. Sometimes the two presidents overlap and become one because the uses of the presidency have changed.

Before television a president who wanted to get himself and his ideas across to the nation had to depend on public appearances before limited audiences on radio. Most of the time he had to depend on deeds alone.

Kennedy, winning the presidency by a slim election margin, felt from the beginning the need to create in the public mind confidence in him and, if possible, affection. The grief at his death showed he filled both ambitions.

It's no wonder he was constantly before the camera. Nor is it any wonder Johnson lost no time going before the public in person on television in his talks to Congress, for example, and his talk on Thanksgiving Day.

He had even greater need than Kennedy to reassure the public the presidency was in safe and competent hands. Kennedy was elected to it. Johnson had it thrust upon him.

Knowing that Kennedy had broad public confidence, Johnson from the beginning has sought to identify himself as one with Kennedy and his programs. He emphasizes continuity.

He even adopted some of Kennedy's homely touches, like using the same kind of rocking chair, or dropping in suddenly on friends at their home. There is a chance he may overdo this folksy routine.

In time, as he gets adjusted to the White House and can begin to gauge public reaction to his presidency, he should work out his own techniques in public relations, a field in which he now must have an additional concern.

He will almost certainly seek election next year.

But in his years in Congress Johnson's greatest abilities were not in public speaking or public appearances but in an endless, tireless effort behind the scenes to get done what he wanted done as smoothly as he could.

He has been very shrewd at this.

Johnson told Congress he in-

AP&L Planning to Extend Line

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Power & Light Co. asked the state Public Service Commission Tuesday for authority to construct a $1.3 million, 35.4-mile transmission line through Perry, Pulaski and Conway counties.

The 161,000-volt line would begin at state Highway 10 on the western outskirts of Little Rock and stretch to Morrilton.

The company also asked permission to build a 12,000-kilowatt substation near Perry (Perry County) to be served by the proposed new line.

The line would provide a new source of power to the com-

RFK Ready to Support Mr. Johnson

By RAMYOND J. CROWLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — What does the future hold for Robert Francis Kennedy, brother and No. 1 adviser to a president now dead at an assassin's hand?

The word today is that the 38-year-old attorney general — whom millions of television viewers saw constantly by the heroic widow's side — will be back soon from a brief rest in Florida, and that he is:

Ready to support the new President, Lyndon B. Johnson, as fully as Johnson supported John F. Kennedy.

Though he has spoken no public word on his plans he is expected to carry on.

He would not, of course, if Johnson wanted another man. But Johnson has asked all Cabinet members to stay. Anyway, those knowledgeable of the national scene would consider it

Favorite Holiday Pineapple Salad

Molded salads have a party air. Crunchy Pineapple Cranberry Ring is perfect for holiday buffet meals featuring turkey or baked ham. It is distinguished by a subtle blending of canned crushed pineapple with tart cranberry sauce and nuts. Make the salad in advance for leisurely serving.

Crunchy Pineapple Cranberry Mold

1 (1-pound 4 1/2-ounce) can crushed pineapple
1 (6-ounce) package lemon flavored gelatin
1/2 cup lemon juice
3 tablespoons shredded or chopped orange peel
2 (1-pound) cans whole cranberry sauce
1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Easy Fluffy Dressing

Drain pineapple; add enough water to syrup to make 1 1/2 cups liquid. Heat liquid to boiling and pour over gelatin, stirring well to dissolve. Stir in pineapple and remaining ingredients, except dressing; turn into 7-cup ring mold. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with pineapple slices, crisp greens and holly, if desired. Served with Easy Fluffy Dressing. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Easy Fluffy Dressing: Stir together 1/2 cup each mayonnaise and dairy sour cream. Makes 1 cup.

unthinkable for Johnson to let Kennedy go.

For one thing, much of the Kennedy mantle has fallen on the oldest surviving brother. To many Negroes, for example, Robert Kennedy is a knightly crusader for their civil rights, though by the same token some Negro leaders have felt he did not push hard enough.

There has been talk—it is too early to tell whether it has substance—that Johnson might ask him to join the ticket next year as vice presidential nominee.

As for the long-term future, his friends and wife Ethel are convinced that at some time he will run for public office. For the Kennedys have been and are competitive men, public men intent on affairs of state.

How did Robert bear the blow of his brother's death? With the somber calm of a Stoic—a calm induced by a faith younger than stoicism, yet old.

On the fateful Nov. 22, he had finished a conference at the Justice Department — a session dealing ironically with how to combat crime. He invited the conferees, U.S. Atty. Robert Morgenthau of New York City and an assistant, Silvio Mallo, out for lunch at the many-windowed, rambling, white brick farmhouse in McLean, Va.

With Mrs. Kennedy, they were seated on a veranda for the lunch, when a telephone rang. Robert went to answer it.

As he went, an electrician working on a nearly completed addition to the house strode toward the open veranda and called out softly that he had just heard on the radio that the President had been shot.

Robert evidently did not hear this. He went to the phone and received from FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover the word that the President had been struck down, probably fatally.

Then, in a short time came a call from Texas, telling of the President's death. Old friends and neighbors dropped in soon to say and do what they could.

First was John A. McCone, head of the CIA, which is not far away.

McCone and Robert went out in the yard, walking for 20 minutes, their heads bowed, talking occasionally.

Lyndon B. Johnson called from Texas, asking in choked tones for legal advice. Would it be all right for him to take the oath in Texas? It would.

Ethel drove away to take the school-age Kennedy children out of school. She wanted to tell them — Kathleen, Joe, Bobby, David and Courtney — before others did.

About 4:30 p.m. the attorney general went to the Pentagon for a 20-minute talk with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. Then by helicopter to Andrews Air Force Base, where he boarded up a stairs and entered the plane bearing the casket, the widow, the new President, the new First Lady.

The world knows now how Robert was at the widow's side in the days that followed, how he walked and sat by her side constantly and helped with the funeral arrangements.

Robert F. Kennedy is no man to tell publicly now what his thoughts were, or what his words were, during the tragic days.

But he is known to have had

Today's News Around the World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arthur Schlesinger Jr., the Harvard historian who was a special assistant to President Kennedy, has agreed to stay on the White House staff.

Pierre Salinger, presidential press secretary, said President Johnson asked Schlesinger to remain. Salinger added that Johnson had been in touch with all of Kennedy's top aides and all had indicated they would continue to serve, himself included.

NEW YORK (AP) — Rachel Carson, whose book "Silent Spring" set off a national controversy, has received the highest award of the National Audubon Society.

A citation presented to Miss Carson said the book "alerted and aroused the public about needless and dangerous chemical pollution (by pesticides) of the natural environment."

MADRID (AP) — Gen. Francisco Franco, leader of Spain since his nationalist forces overthrew the Spanish republic in 1936, was 71 years old today.

The hardy leader had a busy day, including conferences with officials of his government and formal opening of a highway tunnel 31 miles from Madrid.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bob Hope may not make his annual Christmas visit to U.S. troops stationed overseas this year. A blood clot in his left eye is causing fuzziness of vision again.

Hope has deferred final plans for his final trip until doctors tell him whether he should go. The comedian had planned to visit Greece, Turkey, Cyprus, Crete and Libya.

Two weeks ago, Hope went to New York for an examination of his eye. He faces minor surgery.

Got Flight on Tokens, Nerve

BOSTON (AP) — Two 7-year-old boys used two subway tokens and a lot of nerve to get a round trip flight to New York.

Back in Boston, Billy Alther and Steve Murray told authorities they rode the subway from their homes to Logan Airport Monday night, then nonchalantly strolled with other passengers aboard an Eastern Air Lines plane.

The shuttle plane was airborne before a stewardess selling tickets came to the boys and discovered they were alone and broke.

New York police put the boys on the first Eastern flight back to Boston.

this little conversation with an assistant who approached him: "How are you doing?" Kennedy asked.

"I've had better days," the saddened assistant said.

"Don't be sad," Kennedy said.

The assistant said he is certain that these words came from Kennedy's deep well of religious conviction.

Death Car May Go to Museum

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unless President Johnson decides to use it, the bubble-top limousine in which President Kennedy was assassinated probably will be retired to a museum.

The vehicle was flown back to Washington after experts carefully examined it for bullet fragments or other evidence in connection with the fatal shooting of Kennedy in Dallas on Nov. 22.

The 30-month-old limousine is in perfect condition except for a small, unexplained hole in the windshield which may have been caused by a bullet fragment.

If Johnson decides against using the auto, it would likely be returned to the Ford Motor Co. The specially designed Navy blue Lincoln Continental is leased by the government from Ford for $500 a year.

Ford would presumably donate it to the foundation-operated Henry Ford Museum at Dearborn, Mich., where one former presidential car, the Lin-

2nd Trial for Attorney Set

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—U.S. District Judge John E. Miller has set Jan. 6 for the second trial of Hot Springs attorney Sam B. Anderson and Forrest B. Cason, charged with receiving and disposing of a stolen car.

The two men were among nine charged in connection with an auto theft ring operating between Hot Springs and Akron, Ohio, which the Federal Bureau of Investigation broke up early this year.

Both men have pleaded innocent. Their first trial ended in a deadlocked jury Sept. 27 and Miller declared a mistrial. Defense motions for acquittal were later overruled.

Anderson and Cason were indicted by a federal grand jury last April. The cases of all but Cason and Anderson have been disposed of.

coin "Sunshine Special" used by Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman between 1939 and 1950, is already on display.

The vehicle in which Kennedy was slain had been in presidential service since June 1961.

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon

"Mr. Fisher?" Burrows said, and Ann felt an apprehensive stir.

Ben Fisher was standing near the door. "It might be a good idea to get a new board member or two along with the other improvements Mr. Roberts suggested," he said, and Les Bookley flushed.

"Confine the discussion to the hospital, Burrows," he snapped at the principal.

Ben Fisher's snort was derisive. "It was all right, I reckon, when you offered to pay me five bucks to go in the bar at Staley's and say I heard Dr. Kenyon must have done something bad wrong back in New York to have lost her license! What'd you have to pay Barney Homer to get him to say that and the rest of it, which I ain't repeating?"

"Oh, Peter," Ann moaned softly, as Dave Clyde swore under his breath.

But whether he had been "supposed to" or not, Ben Fisher had, and the silence in that first shocked instant was loud. Then Howard Taylor was on his feet, shouting above the suddenly erupting babel, "Mr. Chairman! Fred!"

Burrows shouted back, "Go on, Howard!"

Even a semblance of quiet was an eternity returning, it seemed to Ann. Howard Taylor waited for it before he began, "Since this had to come, and tonight, the muddled atmosphere being what it has been in Leddie for these past several days, I suppose it is just as well it came early in the meeting. Then perhaps we can get down to business." He sent a stern look toward a murmur of disturbance, continued, "Like most of the rest of you, I have heard a good deal of talk about Dr. Kenyon's reasons for leaving a large hospital like Rocky Head General Hospital in New York for a small and by comparison poorly equipped hospital like Leddie Memorial. I don't mind admitting to all of you, and to you, Dr. Kenyon, that I wondered some about that myself. Enough that, just before coming to the school tonight, I put through a call to Rocky Head General Hospital, where I talked to a Dr. Gregory Scottin, who is surgery chief, and I here and now brand as lie the vicious rumor that Dr. Kenyon lost her New York license or ever was in danger of losing it!"

From somewhere came the sound of a siren, a rapidly loudening scream. Howard Taylor paused, but for only a moment before he said, "As a matter of fact, drawing a conclusion from things my sister-in-law, Kathryn Linsen, who is a member of the hospital's board, tells me about the board's last meeting, I wonder if it mightn't be an excellent idea to follow Mr. Fisher's suggestion and reorganize the board? After all, Helen," he met Helen Leddie's eyes, "and ladies and gentlemen—"

The siren shrieking toward them, blasting past and siphoning heretofore rapt attention. Dave Clyde started from his seat first.

"It's the ambulance," he identified the banshee wail. "I'll get it, Pete, Ann—"

He wasn't yet upright when the dull, muffled vrrrooommmmm! rocked the building.

Helen Leddie, to whom Ann's eyes had gone, didn't cry out as, here and there in the auditorium, a few of the women did. Looking stricken, ashen, as if some preternatural sense had told her that dull sound had been one of those storage tanks at Leddie Chemicals.

"Helen!" Without waiting to see that Helen Leddie didn't hesitate, or even seem to have heard, Peter McDonnal was on a chair, shouting "Everyone! Wait—"

Ann didn't hear the rest of it. "This way, Ann!" The urgency of the moment lent an alien harshness to Dave Clyde's voice and to his hand on her arm. Then she was being hurried toward backstage and through an unfamiliar maze to a rear that Dave knew about.

At the corner of the building Ann's breath caught. Dave swore. Long writhing fingers of red-orange, cool blue and greenish flames were probing the night sky, like some devil-surgeon's fingers exploring with indiscriminate abandon, lancing through billowing smoke, disappearing only to erupt again, dissection with renewed unleashed fury.

It was lucky that it was at night and only a few men were at work. During the day, Leddie Chemicals had several hundred men and women working at the big sprawling plant. Then an explosion would injure, perhaps kill, scores. That was one of the emergencies for which the hospital did not have an adequate plan, to say nothing of facilities.

Arkansas Honored at 4-H Meeting

CHICAGO (AP)—Michael Haynes, 16, of Pine Bluff, has been named the outstanding 4-H tractor program member in Arkansas. He received his award during the 42nd annual 4-H club congress.

Haynes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Haynes of Route 3, Pine Bluff, and is a member of the County Line 4-H Club.

He received a plaque symbolizing his achievements and an all-expense paid trip to the club congress.

Kirby Gets Change for Control

By ROGER LANE

AP Business News Writer

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The stage was set today for Allan P. Kirby, 71-year-old Eastern financier, to grasp once more the reins of giant Allegheny Corp., wrested from him more than 30 months ago.

Nowhere in sight for the Allegheny stockholders' meeting, convened to restore Kirby to power, were the oil-rich Murchison brothers of Texas who topped him from command of the vast railroad and investment company empire in May 1961.

John D. Murchison, 41, captain of the successful dissident force of 2 1/2 years ago, was reported inspecting his investment in a Colorado ski resort. Clint W. Murchison Jr., 39, was said to be in Dallas looking after other Murchison interests.

A $16.8-million stock-purchase transaction arranged early last July and executed Oct. 31 sealed the victory for Kirby and his allies.

The intervening time was required to tie together loose ends and for procedural steps, climaxed today with election of a new slate of Allegheny directors, headed by Kirby and including his sons, Fred M. and Allan Jr.

Kirby was expected to resume direction as board chairman. As a New York holding company, Allegheny oversees assets of about $7 billion.

Its prime holdings are effective control of Investors Diversified Services, a $4-billion Minneapolis-based investment company complex, and the $2.5-billion New York Central Railroad, the nation's third largest.
